- Provide line management of staff within the department in conjunction with the Head of Faculty.
- Line management of staff within the ICT Department.

3. Other Duties

The Post Holder may be required to perform duties other than those given in the Job Description for the post. The duties and responsibilities attached to posts may vary from time to time without changing the general character of the duties or the level of responsibility entailed. Such variations are a common occurrence and would not of themselves justify the re-evaluation of a post. In cases, however, where a permanent and substantial change in the duties and responsibilities of a post occurs, consistent with a higher level of responsibility, then the post will be eligible for re-evaluation.

- To participate in the College CPD system and take responsibility for own personal development.
- To ensure that all procedures relating to Safeguarding, Equality and Diversity and Health and safety are well understood by staff and that all staff are appropriately trained.
- To be part of the College Duty Manager Rota.
- To chair, attend and participate in cross-college meetings as appropriate and as requested.

4. Health and Safety

The post holder will agree, as part of the contract of employment, to comply with their duties under the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974, and any Health and Safety Regulations issued under the Act, and to cooperate with the College to enable it to carry out its health and safety duties under the Act. Failure to comply with health and safety duties, regulations, work rules and procedures regarding health and safety, may lead to disciplinary action.

5. Equality and Diversity

The College is committed to a policy of equal opportunities, and all staff are encouraged to play their part in implementing the following College statement:

Yeovil College is an equal opportunities employer. The aim of our policy is to ensure that no job applicant or employee receives less favourable treatment on the grounds of race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origins, sex or marital status, disability, age, responsibility for dependants, or is disadvantaged by conditions or requirements which cannot be shown to be justifiable. The College is committed to preventing discrimination against lesbians and gay men. Selection criteria and procedures will be frequently reviewed to ensure that individuals are selected, promoted, and treated on the basis of their relevant merits and abilities. All employees will be given equal opportunity and, where appropriate, special training, to progress within the organisation. The College is committed to a programme of action to make this policy fully effective and actively advances Equality of Opportunity.

6. Safeguarding

Yeovil College is committed to prioritising and promoting safeguarding and protecting all children, young people, and vulnerable adults from harm whatever, their age, gender, ethnicity, disability, language, faith and or sexual orientation. The term 'safeguarding children and young people' embraces both child protection and a preventative approach to keeping young people safe. 'Safeguarding' therefore encompasses learner health and safety, bullying, meeting the medical needs of those with medical conditions, providing first aid, security, support / safeguarding from drugs and substance abuse etc. This policy is applicable to all learners, staff, volunteers and visitors to Yeovil College as well as children who are in the care of learners whilst on placements and/or employees of Yeovil College and safeguarding is everyone's responsibility.
